REPLY

Sir,

We write to you in reference to your request on labelling rules in Algeria and invite you to find below the Algerian regulation in terms of the labelling of food products:

LABELLING RULES OF FOOD PRODUCTS IN ALGERIA (Decree of November 10th 1990)

Food products must be presented to consumers with an informative labelling integrated in the packaging, in the national language (Arab) and secondarily in another language. The following information must be displayed in a visible, legible and indelible fashion:

- Commercial designation of the product
- List of the ingredients and components
- Net quantity in units of the metric system
- Manufacturing date, best before date of consumption and use
- Name and address of the importer and the manufacturer
- Registered commercial brand
- If necessary: manual or other specific conditions of use

We hope that this information will be useful to you. We remain at your disposal, for any further request.

Best regards,

Emporiki Trade Team
